Dr. Seuss's Aber An Amazing Alphabet Book!, Book by Dr ...

If you want the magic of Dr Seuss's original ABC book, buy the full-sized version. In this board book version, the rhyme has been condensed and changed, and not for the better. It's repetitive, boring, and lacks a lot of the fun language and rhythm of the original. Don't waste your money on the board book--buy the full-sized full-text version.

I am not a big Dr Seuss fan, but I was forced by my 4 children to read the original book many, many times. It was their favourite ABC book. Now I am reading to my one year old granddaughter, and bought the board book for sturdiness. The first time I read it to her, I was tripping and stumbling over the words-the cadence and rhythm of the original is completely mangled. I went and bought the Dr. Seuss's ABC: An Amazing Alphabet Book! song. For this book song, I used the melody from the Day-O song that most of us know as The Banana Boat Song sung by Harry Belafonte. Thanks to louisayyyeung for requesting the chords for this song.

An excellent educational tool, Dr. Seuss's ABC is an inspired introduction to the alphabet, both upper and lowercase letters, and also reinforces letter sounds through alliteration. The rhythm is so musical, it's addictive, rendering it GREAT fun to read aloud. I own the adapted board book edition as well, which is designed to appeal to newborns, and very young children with short
