Christianity and Islam are the two largest religions in the world and share a historical traditional connection, with some major theological differences. The two faiths share a common place of origin in the Middle East , and consider themselves to be monotheistic .
Issues in Christian-Muslim Relations: Ecumenical ...

Christian-Muslim relations have been an issue since the historical rise of Islam, more than fourteen centuries ago. From the beginning there have been two dimensions to the question. The first is related to the practical living together of individuals and communities of the two faiths, and the second to theological challenges.

Anglican - Lutheran

Anglican - Lutheran. The Anglican Communion has had a long and fruitful dialogue with the Lutheran World Federation. The work of the Anglican-Lutheran Commission has completed for the time being, and the Anglican-Lutheran International Co-ordinating Committee has been tasked with monitoring shared mission by the two Communions.
