I have been searching for something different to read & wasn't having a whole lot of luck until "No Good Deed". It was a free book on Book Bub & the concept was interesting.

No Good Deed by Goldy Moldavsky - Goodreads

I've seen a good amount of positive reviews for this book so maybe I'm the odd one out on this but I wasn't into No Good Deed at all. I thought the plot sounded really original and it had a lot of potential but the characters prevented this book from becoming likable for me.

No Good Deed - Indigo Chapters

The ending to No Good Deed was one I wasn't expecting but fully appreciated. What Ellie worried most about actually worked in her favour. I'd say her trip through time was well worth the trouble and emotional toll. Readers who like a fast-paced story with real action and hilarious escapades should not miss out on the fun that is No Good Deed!

No Good Deed is a timely tale about imprisonment, ethics, and forgiveness. I'd recommend it to any seeking a thriller with a culturally relevant message. Hide and Read (Review copy provided by the author)

No Good Deed (2014) - IMDb

This movie had no substance, it was one of the worst I have to say I've seen so far in 2014. The storyline had a whole lot of holes, I can't make sense out of nonsense. Poorly done, love Taraji though so I rated solely on her. I have to give credit though for trying to put together a thriller, but all of these are always the same ending, only watched because the wife wanted to, without her
