They also split the first agenda into two: the original 4-doom Agenda 1a is now a 2-doom Agenda 0a and a 2-doom Agenda 1a. This means it's harder to lose on round 2 or 3 at higher player counts, as you have to draw Ancient Evils more than once to be totally screwed. Which is certainly possible, and you can still lose in these initial rounds you're just less likely to do so.
